The Making of Hanovers

in the factory of Smith & Son at White River Junction.

PACKING AND SHIPPING.

When HANOVER CRACKERS are baked, in the way that only HANOVERS are, they are taken in enormous baskets to the bins near by. The packers work rapidly and place the Crackers in cartons while HOT FROM THE OVEN, ensuring the fresh, delicious HANOVER CRACKER aroma and flavor, with which many of us are familiar. Each carton holds 100 Crackers and only perfect Crackers are selected.

Our 100-count carton.

In the entire process of making Hanovers only the purest materials are used and absolute cleanliness obtains. You could not be better pleased if made in your own kitchen.

Twenty-four of these neat blue boxes are placed in a case, and addressed to a dealer whose order is just at hand, for immediate shipment to him.

HANOVER CRACKERS are sold in nearly every town in Northern New England. Always ask for them.

William Whitman has rented the Gould farm and taken possession. Mr. Carr, who has lived on this farm for a few years, has moved into John Annis' house on the hill, and Mr. Shatney has moved into S. A. Denio's new house on the St. Johnsbury road.
